ARTICLE I. SECTION NAME, AREA SERVED AND NON-PROFIT NATURE

The name of this Section of the American Planning Association (APA), California Chapter shall be the SACRAMENTO VALLEY SECTION (hereafter referred to as “the Section”). The area served by the Section (Section area) shall be the counties of Alpine, Amador, Butte, Calaveras, Colusa, El Dorado, Glenn, Lassen, Modoc, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Shasta, Sierra, Siskiyou, Sutter, Tehama, Yolo, and Yuba. The Section is established through the California Chapter Bylaws. The Section shall be a not-for-profit entity under the auspices of the American Planning Association, California Chapter (California Chapter), which is a 501 (c)(6) non-profit corporation.

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSES OF THE SECTION

2.1 SECTION ESTABLISHED

The Section is established through the California Chapter Bylaws as a tangible local expression of APA purposes and objectives and as a vehicle for maximum membership involvement in the activities of the California Chapter.

2.2 CONSISTENT BYLAWS

The Bylaws of the Section shall be consistent with the policies and procedures of the California Chapter Bylaws Article 11 - Chapter Sections, which directs provisions addressing: establishment of a Section Board, identification of duties of Section Board members, description of Section meetings, management and accounting of Section finances, and procedures and criteria for formation and maintenance of Subsections and functional departments.

2.3 SECTION PURPOSE

The purpose of the Section pursuant to Section 11.1 – Purposes and Function of the Sections of the Chapter Bylaws shall be to carry out the purposes and objectives of the California Chapter and the American Planning Association, as applicable within the established geographic boundary of the Section area, as well as serving the members of the Section. Further, the purpose of the Sacramento Valley Section of the California Chapter of the American Planning Association shall be to carry out purposes and objectives of promoting planning related activities and continuing education functions, as stated in the following Mission Statement:

The Section constitutes an organization of professional planners, planning commissioners, students and those in related professions who support the planning process, dedicates our resources and services for:

Communication: Increasing awareness and involvement in community issues and the planning process, for both our membership and our community.

Education: Providing and contributing to public forums for teaching, exchanging information and lending our professional experience regarding planning issues.

Advocacy: Implementing decision-making processes, based on sound planning and community development principles, to effectively resolve land use, natural resource and development issues.

Professionalism: Training and guiding members according to the National American Planning Association’s (“APA”) standards of professional integrity and promoting membership in the American Institute of Certified Planners.

ARTICLE 3. SECTION MEMBERSHIP

3.1 MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY

California Chapter members whose address of record, as provided to the APA National [APA] or California Chapter office, are in the Section area, shall automatically be a member of this Section. Full Section membership is terminated when a name no longer appears on the national or California Association register of members in good standing.

3.2 MEMBERS OF APA RESIDING IN CALIFORNIA

APA members whose addresses of record (as provided by the members to APA) are within the state of California and within the Section area boundary shall automatically be members of the Chapter and Section. (See Section 3.2 – Members of APA Residing in California of the California Chapter Bylaws for a further description of roles and restrictions.)

3.3 MEMBERS OF APA NOT RESIDING IN CALIFORNIA

A member of APA whose address of record is outside California may, upon payment of California Chapter dues, be a non-resident member of the California Chapter. Non-resident members shall have the same privileges as Chapter-Only members, except that they shall not hold any Chapter or Section office and shall not vote in Chapter or Section elections.

3.4 MEMBERS OF CALIFORNIA CHAPTER-ONLY

Persons who are not members of APA may choose to be California Chapter-Only members whose membership eligibility, roles and restrictions are addressed in the California Chapter Bylaws Section 3.4 - Members of California Chapter-Only. After demonstrating to the California Chapter an address of record that is within the Section area boundary, the person shall also be a member automatically of the Section. Per Chapter Bylaws Section 3.4, Chapter-Only members may vote in Section elections and may hold a position on the Section Board except for the positions of Section Director, Section Director-Elect, Past Section Director, Professional Development Officer, or Section Treasurer.

3.5 SECTION AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

“Section Affiliate” members are individuals that are interested in furthering the purpose of the Section. Section Affiliate members receive all Section publications.

Section Affiliate Members will receive the same discounts to Section events as full and California Association APA members. Fees for Section Affiliate Membership is to be set by the Section Board and collected by the Membership Director. In accordance with Section By-Laws, these members may not hold any Section office. Section Affiliate members will not be eligible to be a member of the AICP, as prescribed by APA and AICP By-Laws.

ARTICLE 4. SECTION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The elected members enumerated in Article 4.1 shall constitute the Executive Board of the Section to conduct business of the Section at such time as the full Section Board cannot meet. The Past Section Director shall be a member of the Executive Board at any time there is not a Section Director-Elect. The Executive Board shall include either the Past Section Director or Section Director-Elect, but not both at the same time.

The elected officers listed in Article 4.1 and the appointed officers listed in Article 4.2 shall constitute the Section Board. All elected and appointed members of the Sacramento Valley Section Board shall be volunteers and shall serve without financial remuneration.

The Student Representative shall be a full-time student enrolled in 8 units or more per semester/quarter of college level course work at a state accredited university. ARTICLE 6. ELECTION OF SECTION DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS AND TERMS OF OFFICE

6.1 ELECTED OFFICERS AND BOARD TERMS

Pursuant to 11.6 – Terms of Office for Section Directors & Officers, the Chapter Bylaws requires the term of office of all Section Directors to be two years, as follows:

- A. The Directors of Los Angeles, Orange, Sacramento Valley and Central Coast Sections shall take office on January 1 of even-numbered years.
- B. The Directors of Northern, San Diego, Inland Empire and Central Sections shall take office on January 1 of odd-numbered years.

The term of office of all other elected and appointment members of the Section Board shall be specified in the Section Bylaws as follows:

- C. The term of office of each elected or appointed officer (except for Section Director-Elect) shall be for two (2) years, commencing on January 1st. Officers appointed to a vacant position shall fill the unexpired term which shall not exceed the term of the office vacated.
- D. The elected positions of Section Director, Secretary, and Director of Programs shall be elected to serve at the beginning of even-numbered years. The elected positions of Treasurer, Director of Professional Development, and Director of Membership Diversity and Equity shall be elected to serve at the beginning of odd-numbered years.
- E. The position of Section Director-Elect shall be elected to serve a one-year term concurrent with the final 12-months of the Section Director's term. The Section Director-Elect shall first be elected in December of an even numbered year for a one-year term beginning on January 1 of the odd numbered year. All currently elected and appointed officers except Section Director, as well as the Section membership at large, are eligible to run for Section Director-Elect.

As required by the Chapter Financial Policies, the minimum qualifications and vacancy requirements of the Section Treasurer are mandated and shall include the following:

- F. Any candidate for Section Treasurer shall be knowledgeable in accounting procedures, including posting debits and credits into accounting software, balancing accounts and reconciling statements.

6.2 ELECTION COMMITTEE OR PROCESS, NOMINATION OF ELECTED OFFICERS AND VACANCIES

A. Nomination of Section Officers

1. A Nominating Committee of not less than three (3) Section members shall be appointed by the Section Director prior to October 1st of each election year. The Nominating Committee shall actively solicit nominations. The Nominating Committee shall render its report in time for voting to take place prior to January 1st of each election year. The membership shall have the opportunity to submit name(s) for nomination as candidates for Section Officers by petitions containing signatures of not less than ten (10) Section members eligible to vote. The petition shall be submitted to the Nomination Committee on or before the 1st of December of each election year.
2. The Nominating Committee shall submit the names and qualifications of all candidates meeting the minimum qualifications for inclusion on the election ballot. For those positions without candidates (if any), the Nominating Committee shall select and submit candidate names.

B. Vacancies

1. The Section Board may appoint officers to fill vacancies that occur during the year. Such appointed officers shall serve the unexpired term of their predecessor. In the case that Section Board discussion occurs about why an appointment to fill a particular unexpired term should not be made, a majority vote of the Section Board members may call for a special election. If for any reason a Treasurer is replaced mid-term, the Section Director will immediately contact the VP of Administration and send or review all accounting information with the VP of Administration and Chapter/Section bookkeeper before any accounting activities are assumed by the new Treasurer.
2. The Section Director, with the concurrence of at least 50 percent of the Executive Board, shall fill vacancies of Section elected or appointed officers occurring during the term, to serve the unexpired term of their predecessor in office. In the event that the vacancy occurs in the position of Section Director, the Secretary shall assume the position as Acting Section Director until the Executive Board meets and confirms the appointment of a Section Director.
3. In the event that a position is not filled during the annual election, the Section Director, with the concurrence of at least 50 percent of the Executive Committee shall appoint a member in good standing to fill the position within sixty (60) days of the Section Election.

C. Voting Procedure and Eligibility to Vote and/or Hold Office

1. All members of the Section, as defined in Article 4.1 and Article 4.2 are eligible to vote in elections for Section Officer and/or hold office as a Section Officer. Members of the Section will be accepted as legitimate nominated and "write in" candidates.
2. Voting for Section Officers shall be by secret ballot either mailed or by electronic means not less than ten (10) days prior to the date specified for the return of the ballot. If a "write in" candidate is elected, the Nominating Committee shall determine if the candidate meets the minimum membership qualifications, as defined in Article 4.1 and Article 4.2. The Nominating Committee shall notify the Executive Board within thirty (30) days as to its findings.
3. The nominating committee, as identified in Section 6.2.A, will be responsible for the counting and verifying the votes.

6.3 NON-PERFORMANCE OF ELECTED OFFICERS AND APPOINTED BOARD MEMBERS

Any Elected Officer may be removed from office for non-performance upon a motion adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Section Board. A motion will require the following:

- A. The grounds for non-performance must be submitted to the Board and may include: non-attendance at Board meetings or committee meetings, failure to execute adopted programs, incurring legal liability for the Section or California Chapter based on dilatory performance of duties, misconduct or dereliction of duty, or other criteria that may be added to this subsection.
- B. Due process for elected officers will require at least two consecutive Board meetings to conclude a motion, as follows: the first for the making of the motion and a submission of grounds; and the second to consider any response submitted by the officer charged and to allow the Board to then sustain or deny the motion.

Appointed Board Members not fulfilling responsibilities as assigned in the Section bylaws may be removed by action of the Elected Officers or by a motion brought by the Elected Officers to a single Board meeting for action. An appointed Board member shall have the opportunity to correct inappropriate action or inaction before the scheduled Section Board action for removal.

ARTICLE 7. SECTION BOARD MEETINGS

The Section Director may call such meetings as deemed necessary to carry out the purposes and objectives of the Section. A simple majority of the Section Board as defined in Section 4.4 shall constitute a quorum for the purposes of transacting business at a meeting of the Section Board. The Section Board may vote on all matters pertaining to Section business unless otherwise specified in the By-Laws.

7.1 EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETINGS

A simple majority of the Executive Board, as defined in Section 4.3, shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting business at a meeting of the Executive Board. A majority of those present may take action on any given item unless otherwise specified in the By-Laws.

7.2 EMERGENCY MEETINGS

An emergency meeting may be called by the Section Director only when an item under the Board's authority must be addressed before the next regular meeting due to restrictions on the time to act. If an emergency meeting is required, the Section Director shall convene an in-person meeting of a quorum of Section Board members. However, if an in-person meeting is not possible, a conference call or email vote may occur at the discretion of the Section Director in consultation with the other elected officers.

7.3 NOTICE OF MEETINGS

No official Section business shall transpire at these meetings unless reasonable notice of the time and place of the Section Board meeting or the Executive Board meeting is duly noticed at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the time of the meeting by mailing, facsimile or e-mail sent to the last known address of each Board Member. The business to be transacted at the meeting need not be specified in the notice of the meeting unless specifically required by law of these By-laws.

ARTICLE 8. FINANCIAL POLICIES OF THE SECTION

8.1 MANAGEMENT OF SECTION FINANCES AND BUDGET

The Sacramento Valley Section finances shall be managed consistent with the Chapter Bylaws and Chapter Financial Policies, and shall comply with Section V - Section Financial Policies of the Chapter Financial Policies. The Section shall spend its revenue obtained from all sources to achieve the purposes and objectives listed in the Section Bylaws in Article 2 – Purposes of the Section. The Section Board shall adopt an annual Section budget which shall be reviewed and approved by the Board by a majority vote with income and expense budget line items consistent in category and format with those included for the Sections in the Chapter Chart of Accounts. The Section shall contract with the Chapter/Section bookkeeper to provide at minimum preparation and review of the monthly statements, quarterly reports, annual report and 1099's. The Section Treasurer shall provide all information necessary required by the Chapter to file annual Chapter tax returns as outlined in the Chapter Financial Policies.

The Section shall include additional policies and procedures governing the Section finances which shall include requirements governing the internal financial oversight of the Section finances including:

- A. A list of primary revenue sources for the Section.
- B. Board member and bookkeeper access to the Section bank accounts and the Quickbooks Online portal.
- C. Board approval required to commit the resources of the Section.
- D. Reimbursement requirements including receipts.
- E. A reserves policy that shall include at least the equivalent of 6 months of operating expenses for the Section, and when funds should be deposited in reserves.
- F. How conference profits are to be handled and allocated.

ARTICLE 9. ADOPTION AND AMENDMENT OF SECTION BYLAWS, INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM, AND PROCEDURE FOR ESTABLISHING SECTION POLICY

9.1 ADOPTION OF SECTION BYLAWS

The Section shall adopt and maintain bylaws to govern Section affairs that are consistent with the California Chapter bylaws and at a minimum contain: establishment of the Section Board, duties of board members, Section meetings to carry out the purpose and objectives of the Section, and management and accounting of Section finances. The Section Bylaws shall be the primary governing document of the Section. Operating procedures for various activities shall be developed and kept in an electronic location accessible to Section members. Adoption of the bylaws shall be by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the filled seats of the Section Board.

9.2 AMENDMENT AND ADOPTION OF SECTION BYLAWS

Upon authorization of the Section Board, or upon petition of ten (10) percent of the members of the Section, any proposed amendment to these By-Laws shall be placed on the agenda for a vote by the Section Board. No less than fifty (50) days or at least one (1) Board meeting shall be allowed from the date of placing the amendment on the agenda prior to a vote. The Section Director, with concurrence of the Board, may appoint a subcommittee to draft revisions to adopted Section bylaws. Depending on the complexity of the revisions, issues may be identified or draft language may be presented to the Section Board by the subcommittee. The full text of drafted bylaws amendments shall be presented to the Section Board in writing and placed for member review on the Section website prior to a vote. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the filled seats of the Board shall be required to approve amendments to these bylaws. The effective date of the amendment shall be the date of the affirmative vote unless otherwise specified prior to the vote.

9.3 INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

Upon the receipt of a petition signed by not less than 10% of the members of the Section who are eligible to vote in accordance with Article V, the Section Board shall cause any initiative or referendum measure to be placed on the ballot used for Elected Officers, and be voted upon in accordance with the procedure set forth in these bylaws for the election of Section Board officers. A majority of those voting, regardless of number, will determine the issue.

9.4 SECTION POLICIES AFFECTING INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The Section Director, with the concurrence of the Section Board, may from time to time, establish policies as necessary for the management of Section internal affairs, consistent with the provisions of these By-Laws.

9.4 PUBLIC STATEMENTS

- A. The Section's mission statement, relating to communication and advocacy, should guide all public statements by Section Board Members. Whenever possible, the Section Director shall serve as the spokesperson for the Section.
- B. Public position statements and endorsements on planning issues should be reviewed by the Section Board prior to release.
- C. The Section's mission does not include endorsements of candidates for public office.

9.4 EXCLUSIONS

This subsection shall not exclude the Section from participating in other organizations or events wherein public statements of policy or position are made on behalf of or in the name of a non-Section organization or event.

ARTICLE 10 – BOARD MEMBER ETHICS, INDEMNIFICATION, CONFLICT OF INTEREST, AND BOARD DISSOLUTION

10.1 ETHICS

Section Board Members who are members of the American Institute of Certified Planners are subject to the AICP Code of Ethics in their behavior related to Board activities.

10.2 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

If any Section Board member has a financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board, that affected person shall fully disclose the nature of the interest and withdraw from discussion, lobbying, and voting on the matter.

10.3 INDEMNIFICATION

The California Chapter Board of Directors, on behalf of the Chapter, shall provide the Sections with Officers and Directors insurance and General Liability insurance, the Section's share to be paid by the Section, to indemnify any Section Board member fulfilling their duties for whom indemnification is permitted under California law, up to the fullest extent permissible under the law.

10.4 BOARD DISSOLUTION

Pursuant to the process described in Article 16 – Dissolution of the Chapter bylaws, if the Chapter is dissolved by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors, the SACRAMENTO VALLEY SECTION of the California Chapter of the American Planning Association is also dissolved.
